

16.2 GOVERNANCE

Princess Nourah Bint Abdulrahman University was established in 2011 at a time when the world was still witnessing an increase in globalization and associated technological advances in the various socio-economic and educational fields. There are many other current factors that have a direct impact on higher education in the country.

Elected Representation on the University's Highest ...

Students' Union

Local Stakeholders External

Participatory Bodies

University's Principles towards Corruption and Brib...

Support Academic Freedom

Financial Support