

WOMEN'S ACCESS SCHEMES

Princess Nourah bint Abdulrahman University (PNU) provides various women's access schemes through scholarships, mentoring, and other targeted supports

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia affirms the vital importance of the role women play in development, and endeavors to invest her energies and activating her essential role at the local and international levels. Moreover, as part of the Kingdom's strategic Vision 2030, women have been set a comprehensive goal for increasing their contribution to the labor market, retaining their rights in the health and education sectors, in unison with the fifth goal of the sustainable development goals. Thus, among the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia's initiatives in partnership with PNU for promoting gender equality and women empowerment, there are several points to highlight.

In 2019, PNU launched its new brand identity, which revolves around providing an educational environment that stimulates creativity and innovation, enabling the preparation of female cadres capable of promoting community culture, spreading positive thinking, and rooting cultural heritage, which is also emphasized in the brand slogan "edifice of empowerment". Following is the university's vision and mission statements, as well as the brand identity guide.
