4. Course general Description:
English Language 101 is a beginner/elementary course intended to provide students with a foundation from which they can advance from A1 Breakthrough to end of A2 Waystage on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). A2 learners can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance, communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters, and describe in simple terms aspects of their background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need. It is a fifteen-week module course with 12 hours of instruction each week.
5. Pre-requirements for this course (if any):
This is a beginner level English language course with no prerequisites. See attached policy for student placement and exemption.
6. Co-requisites for this course (if any):
N/A
7. Course Main Objective(s):
The primary aim of this course is to equip students with essential knowledge and abilities to understand straightforward information on familiar subjects encountered in daily life. These topics may include basic personal details, family information, shopping, local geography, and employment. Additionally, the course intends to develop students' critical thinking skills and enable them to express personal experiences and opinions on matters relevant to immediate needs.
