

جامعة الأميرة
نورة بنت عبدالرحمن
كلية علوم الحاسب والمعلومات

نورة تك
Nourah Tech

للخدمات والاستشارات الحاسوبية
for Computer Services and Consulting

Business Consulting office

@_PNU_KSA

CCIS-BPM@pnu.edu.sa

0096612823843

Brief

Business Consulting Office "Nourah Tech" for computer services and consulting at College of Computer and Information Sciences, Princess Nourah University is a national advisory house of expertise that provides its services in the fields of computer services, consulting studies, research and development on contractual basis to transform human knowledge into economic and invests its activities as private sectors. It is administratively linked to the Institute of Development and Consulting Services at the university through the electronic Houses of Expertise platform.

Vision

Pioneering services and consulting in computer business systems and digital technology.

Message

Provide an opportunity for faculty members to provide research and consulting services and benefit from their expertise to transform academic expertise into a knowledge economy.

Target audience

- Faculty members/ students from inside and outside the university.
- Governmental and private agencies.
- Society Members.

Office Activities

- Meeting the needs of the society inside and outside the university and its development by providing professional, scientific, technical services.
- Exchanging consulting studies and marketing research and services with various sectors of society.
- Preparing and conducting training courses, workshops and camps for students, individuals, and the business sector in various disciplines, to help them develop their capabilities and skills using modern and advanced devices, as well as absorbing advanced technology.

Technical Fields

Internet of Things, Data Science, Cyber security, Project Management, Web and Application Development, Artificial Intelligence, Database Management, Software Engineering, Network Development, Business Analysis, Blockchain, etc.