Part Two: Application Terms and Conditions

1. The student must reside outside Riyadh at a distance of no less than 150 km; the Deanship of Student Affairs may request the necessary supporting evidence.
2. The student must be free of infectious diseases or any condition that may endanger her safety or the safety of others; the Deanship may request proof of this or refer her to the University Medical Center or King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz University Hospital.
3. The student must not have been previously dismissed from student housing for violating the University's regulations and bylaws.
4. The student must agree and undertake to comply with the University's regulations and bylaws, in particular the rules and procedures governing student housing.
5. Any other conditions or documents announced on the University website at the time applications open.

Admission is subject to available vacancies and the priority criteria set by the competent committee.

Part Three: Documents

Required documents

- Submit the application through the (Housing Request) service on Banner.
- A certified copy of the secondary school certificate.
- The student's national ID card.

Optional documents

- A valid disability certificate (if applicable).
- A recent dependent status statement (Tabé').
- Mawhiba certificates or accredited awards and achievements obtained within the last three years (if applicable).

Part Four: Semester Fees

Item	Details	Amount
Bachelor's / Diploma student	Double housing unit	SAR 1,000
Postgraduate student	Internal scholarship	SAR 6,000
Housing unit deposit	Refunded upon handing back the unit and its key, once confirmed free of damage	SAR 500

Fees for one semester, payable in full in advance upon final admission.

The unit fee may be refunded within two weeks of signing the agreement if the student decides not to continue.

Part Five: Important Notes on University Housing Applications

1. Meeting the conditions does not guarantee admission: admission is subject to available vacancies and priority criteria, given the high number of applicants and the limited number of seats.
2. Passing the interview is essential: successful completion of the personal interview is required for final admission.
3. Incomplete applications are not considered: no application that is incomplete or does not meet the specified requirements will be reviewed.
4. Online applications only: applications are received through the electronic portal (Banner); no application or document sent by email or delivered in person will be considered.

5. Optional documents: attaching optional documents does not guarantee admission; they are considered during comparative evaluation under the approved rules and priority criteria.
