

Female Students' Rights Protection Unit

Objectives of the Unit:

- Preserve students' rights in accordance with university rules and regulations.
- Establish the principle of fairness by supporting students' rights based on legal frameworks.
- Activate and implement the Student Rights and Responsibilities Charter.
- Promote awareness of students' legal rights.
- Educate students about their rights and responsibilities within the university environment.

Services Provided by the Unit:

- Provide academic and non-academic consultations to help students overcome challenges during their educational journey.
- Raise awareness among students about how to claim their rights through official channels.
- Promote the culture of student rights and responsibilities among students, faculty, and administrative staff.
- Uphold the principles of justice and fairness for all female students.
- Receive and address academic and non-academic complaints in accordance with university regulations.
- Develop and implement educational and awareness programs under the Female Students' Rights Protection Unit.

