

جامعة الأميرة نورة بنت عبدالرحمن
Princess Nourah bint Abdulrahman University

Honorable Dean's List

Fourth, third and second year of the Faculty of Medicine

For the year 1445

Criteria for selecting female students for the Dean's Honor List

It is a list issued annually by the Dean and includes 10% of female students each year. It aims to honor outstanding female students and create a competitive creative academic environment in line with the vision of the College of Human Medicine at Princess Nourah bint Abdulrahman University to encourage female students to excel academically.

Students will be selected based on the following:

The student must have obtained an annual GPA of 4.5 or more.

The student must not have committed an offense that required a warning or penalty at the college or university level.

The student has never failed or been deprived of any course during her studies.

Students will be selected based on the following criteria:

Cumulative GPA.

Volunteer activities.

Scientific activities.

Research activity.

Awards.

Nominated students will be contacted to provide us with the required attachments via their university email.

Conditions for applying to the Dean's Honor List in the College of Medicine:

1. The student must be a regular student.
2. The cumulative GPA must be 4.5 or more, with a certified copy of the academic form attached.
3. The student must not have failed or been deprived in any of the courses in the study plan.
4. No disciplinary penalties have been issued against the student during the years of study in the college or violations.
6. Participate actively in the educational and social activities of the college and university, as a coordinator, organizer or participant.
7. The applicant must have a role in community responsibility and volunteer campaigns that benefit society.
8. 20 points will be deducted from the student who receives an absence warning without a valid excuse (at a rate of 10 points for each absence warning).

Mechanism for applying for the Dean's Honor List:

1. The student must apply via the email of the Student and Community Services Department (cm-sau@pnu.edu.sa) and must submit the application within 30 days of the announcement of opening the application for the Dean's List attaching all documents related to the activities, research, and award certificates that she obtained in the criteria form within the specified time period.

No applications will be accepted without attaching proof of participation in all activities, with the necessity that the documents be (signed / stamped) by the party responsible for that activity.

2. Upload the documents mentioned in point 1 with the Dean's Honor List Selection Criteria form in PDF format, making sure that the file title is the student's full name.

Names of the Honorary Dean's List

The names of the female students who have been selected for the Honorary Dean's List by the committee will be announced every Hijri year on the college website and the students' email, and they will be honored and provided with electronic certificates by Her Excellency the Dean of the College of Human Medicine.